THE SEARCHLIGHT VICTIMS SUPPORT GROUP

SEARCHLIGHT CAUGHT

10 DOWNING STREET
LONDON SW1A 2AA

From the Assistant Private Secretary

22 January 1998

Dear Mr

I am writing on behalf of the Prime Minister to thank you for your letter of 3 December about a letter allegedly sent to the him by the Mercian Klan. I am sorry for the delay in replying.

We have no trace of ever having received this letter and it would, in any case, have been ignored.

Yours sincerely,

MRS JANICE RICHARDS

LYING AGAIN!

TARGET: ISSUE ... Number Nine

Welcome to issue nine of TARGET

For new readers, we view our task as demonstrating our opposition to Searchlight's policy of exposing and harassing political opponents and their families at their homes, in the street and at their workplaces. Since our beginning, it has never been our intention to present political policies but, simply to demonstrate to Searchlight and its supporters that they too are vulnerable to the exposure tactics that they employ our support. Whilst Searchlight continues to print photographs and personal details of political opponents then TARGET will publish the same details of Searchlight supporters.

We would like to make it clear however, we would NOT wish to see any Searchlight supporters exposed by TARGET being subjected to intimidation or harassment. But, all Searchlight supporters should be aware that, SELF - DEFENCE IS NO OFFENCE, and we will continue to defend ourselves by exposing them, until they condemn Searchlight's tactics, and assist us in defeating this evil.

Until Victory!

MI5 "Spook" NOW SELLS DOUBLE GLAZING.

Former MI5 secret agent. Andy Carmichael, who infiltrated the National Democrats, rising to become the West Midlands regional organiser at the behest of his faceless masters, has been rewarded by the state, by being made redundant! Carmichael claims he was approached by MI5 in 1991, and offered full time employment infiltrating the National Democratic party.

Just why the Nat Dems were targeted by the security services remains a mystery, as the party are not believed to be involved in "activities intended to overthrow or undermine parliamentary democracy by political, industrial or violent means", this being the criteria for state surveillance first revealed in 1994 by the then MI5 Director-General, Stella Rimington.

Indeed, if rumours are true, certain Nat Dem officers have, in the past, only been too willing to discuss "items of mutual interest" with representatives of Britain's political police. But the fact remains that Carmichael did infiltrate the Nat Dems and did rise fairly high in their ranks. Carmichael claims he was instructed by the National Democrats to infiltrate the rival, Referendum party with a plan to disrupt their General Election campaign. At this point, he claims, he was told to reveal details of the dastardly plan, which he did through The Times newspaper, for which we assume he was financially rewarded.

With his cover now "blown" Carmichael was of no further use MI5 and subsequently made redundant, complete with severance pay provided by the taxpayer it is claimed. But sadly, as his local jobcentre had no vacancies for ex-spies, Carmichael had to embark on a new career, AS A DOUBLE GLAZING SALESMAN!

To add a little spice and excitement to his now rather humdrum employment, Carmichael has decided to continue to work in the West Midlands area, despite his fears of retaliation from the former colleagues he betrayed. "there are an awful lot of people who would cause me harm" Carmichael told a reporter from his local paper, The Lichfield Post.

Sources in the West Midlands confirmed to TARGET that they would indeed like to have a meaningful discussion about loyalty, with agent, 006, Carmichael. A.

Any reader having any useful information about his current whereabouts should contact us in confidence.

SEARCHLIGHT SOURCES AND TACTICS

Searchlight have always maintained a close relationship with the State Intelligence agencies and information on the right, received from official sources, is often traded in exchange for information provided by Searchlight, on members of the extreme-left!

Who do you think assisted the police in identifying the rioters at Welling? Who tried to destabilise the Green Anarchist Movement and Class War by inciting members into unlawful activities? Who set up Red Action for police surveillance and identification at Kensington library?

Do they really still believe it was a coincidence that the police were waiting for them at the tube station? Operation "Blackshirt" was really a joint, Searchlight-Police operation!

Searchlight's methods and motives are well explained in the "Gable Memorandum" circa May 1977.

Searchlight's second most valuable source is that of infiltrators within the nationalist movement. These have on occasions, managed to get positions at a fairly high level, both locally and nationally. Money, not beliefs, is often the main motivation in these cases although, disgruntled nationalists have occasionally used Searchlight to denounce those colleagues that they have a personal animosity to!

This, and the opportunity of thirty pieces of silver has, we believe, been the key motivation in the cases of Charles Hanson, Ray Hill, Keith Thompson, Tim Hepple and Tony White. Unfortunately for them, Searchlight normally insists on a "face to face" meeting before cash is handed over. These meetings are monitored. Video's and photographs are taken, recording the meeting for posterity. The informer is in Searchlight's clutches for evermore! Any informant who later refuses to bow to Searchlight's wishes or becomes of no further use are often exposed by Searchlight as an informer and left to the tender mercies of their former colleagues!

For example, Hanson's role as an informer was exposed in the Jewish Chronicle after he became of no further use, and Thompson's at the trial of Gerry Gable. In the latter case, Searchlight's motivation was revenge on Thompson for disobeying instructions not to give evidence. Thompson chose to ignore instructions and halfway through giving evidence Searchlight revealed that he had sold information to them in the past, and claimed him as an "asset".

Hepple's motives were both financial and a way of gaining revenge on those in the nationalist movement who he felt had humiliated him. He received his pay-off via a national newspaper article and a book deal. Ray Hill's motivation was a mixture of coercion and cash, we believe. Ray also received payments from a national newspaper, thoughtfully arranged by Searchlight supporters in the media. A book deal was also arranged. A regular paid column in Searchlight was also available until he upset Searchlight's republican friends and this facility was withdrawn. Whether Ray has enjoyed the fruits of his treachery or not isn't known. Spending one's life looking over one's shoulder can be very stressful.

Both Tim Hepple and Tony White's activities have been well documented in booklets by independent researcher, Larry O Hara, and Leeds BNP respectively and confirm the motivation of revenge and cash!

Whilst it has been known for Searchlight to "trawl" for information by contacting former nationalist activists who, for a variety of reasons, may have left mainstream activities either temporarily or permanently, it is normally the case that "first contact" is initiated by the traitor themselves.

This "first contact" has even started as someone phoning Searchlight to abuse them. The calls are recorded and probably passed over to the police. If any clues are unwittingly given to identify the caller then Searchlight will be anxious to maintain contact. This is the first step to becoming trapped in the Searchlight web.

Our advice is don't contact Searchlight under any circumstances.

Photographs are one of Searchlight's primary sources of information. Who is attending rallies or meetings, who is standing or talking with this person or that group, all photographs tell a story. Photographers at marches or outside meetings, must be regarded as hostile and treated accordingly!

Finally remember, Searchlight are a tiny well organised group who are fanatical about hiding their own identities and, this is their weakness. Identify their main players and we are halfway to freeing ourselves from this pestilence.

HELP US TO HELP YOU. THE FIGHTBACK HAS BEGUN!

SEARCHLIGHT'S COMRADES IN SCOTLAND

The Socialist Alliance party are one of Searchlight's support groups in Scotland. This group and its English parent, The Socialist Party who were once better known as Militant have established close links with Searchlight through its youth group, YRE, and through them to AFA. All of these groups have performed as Searchlight stooges by harassing individuals whose political beliefs are not approved by Searchlight. Details of recent S.A. candidates are printed below. Perhaps readers should contact them and ask why in a democracy do they support Searchlight's policies of harassment and intimidation

SOCIALIST ALLIANCE PARTY CANDIDATES

William Bonner. 36, Kerry Croy Ave, Glasgow.

James Mc Vicar. 5, Viewfield Ave, Glasgow.

Ron Stevenson. 5, Second Ave, Mount Florida, Glasgow.

Alan Mc Coombes. Flat 212, 896, Govan Road, Glasgow.

Mandy Baker. Flat 8F, 76, Colling St., Marghill, Glasgow.

John Lawson. 3/1, 109, Stratford Street, Glasgow.

Tommy Sheridan. 261L, Linthaugh Rd, Pollock, Glasgow.

Christine Mc Vicar. 5, Viewfield Ave, Glasgow.

Allan Green. 40, Victoria Park Drive South, Glasgow.

ELECTION AGENTS

J. Mc Guire. Flat 2L, 283, Springburn Way, Glasgow.

Harry Brown. 3/2, 63, Kent Rd, Glasgow.

Isobel Stuart. 5, Second Ave, Mount Florida, Glasgow.

Hary Mc Laren. Flat 2, 2, Smeaton Rd, Ruchill, Glasgow.

Anne Lynch. 8, Kilcloy Ave, Glasgow.

Richie Venton. 3/1, 28, Elderpark St, Govan, Glasgow.

James Nisbet. 624, Tollcross Rd, Glasgow.

Stuart Rankin. 8, Arnisdale Place, Easterhouse, Glasgow.

K. Baldassang. 67, Calhill Rd, Pollok, Glasgow.

In an attempt to gauge public opinion to the party's new name, or perhaps to confuse the public even more, Militant also stood a candidate under The Socialist Party, title.

The candidate was .. Victor Vanni. Flat 1a, Baker St, Glasgow. His agent was Richard Donnelly. 112, Napierhall Rd, Maryhill, Glasgow.

The now almost defunct, Workers Revolutionary Party, managed to put up two candidates in London, but failed to find two London based election agents. In the event, they turned to the exotically named, Anne Fiona Lettice, of 107, Slatmarket, Glasgow.

Whilst we welcome the entry into democracy via the electoral system, of all extreme-left groups, it needs to be explained to them that democracy and Searchlight are not compatible. Support for the harassment and intimidation tactics advocated and practiced by Searchlight are completely unacceptable in a democratic system.

We would like to remind readers that we would NOT wish any of those mentioned above to suffer any harassment. Our sole purpose in publishing these details is to make these Searchlight supporters aware that, they too can be exposed!

If any of those exposed by us feel that we are wrong in labeling them Searchlight supporters then, they should write to us condemning Searchlight's tactics of exposure and harassment, and we will be pleased to issue a correction and an apology.

TARGET:

DISCOVERS ...

SEARCHLIGHT CAUGHT LYING AS PRIME MINISTER'S OFFICE DENIES "KLAN" LETTER.

Searchlight have again been caught blatantly lying. This time the confirmation comes from no less a source than the office of the Prime Minister, Tony Blair!

Searchlight readers will recall in the November 1997 issue, on page 16, there featured what was presented as a threatening letter from the "Mercian White Knights of the Ku Klux Klan" sent to the Prime Minister, Mr. Blair.

TARGET, concerned as to how this letter may have been obtained from 10, Downing Street, and wary that the Prime Minister's London home may have had a recent visit from someone posing as a "GPO telephone engineer" we contacted Mr. Blair's office.

Imagine our surprise when the Prime Minister's office, TOTALLY DENIED HAVING EVER RECEIVED ANY SUCH LETTER!

We speculated whether the PM, or a member of his staff, could deliberately be lying, to conceal a secret liaison with Searchlight? Or could someone from the Security Services be behind a massive cover-up, ashamed that number 10, Downing Street, had been the victim of a "black-bag" job?

Or could this be a completely false document manufactured by the Searchlight team desperate to maintain some tiny credibility amongst its flagging readership?

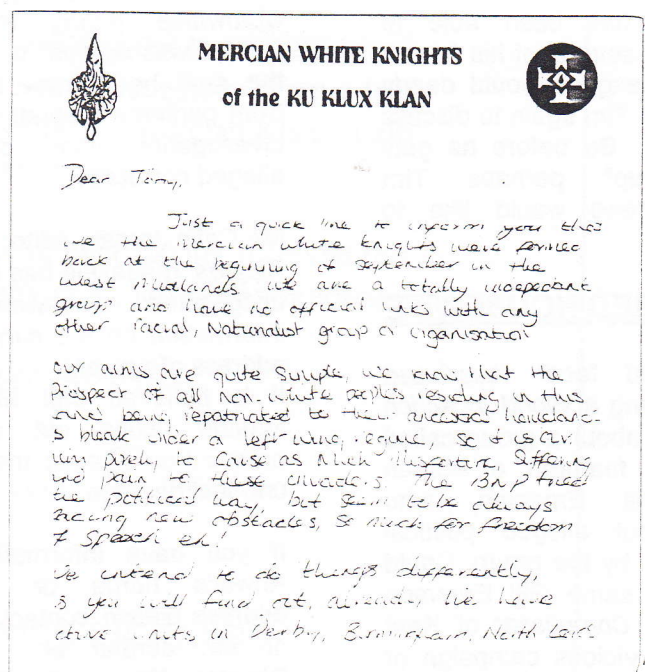

We will leave it up to you to make your own decision!

Above: In November 1997, Searchlight published this letter which they claim was sent to the Prime Minister, Tony Blair. The P.M.'s office say they have never received such a letter. Who are we to believe. The Prime Minister or Searchlight?

BEWARE UFO's

People who spend much of their spare time scanning the skies in the vain hope that they might one day catch a glimpse of an "Unidentified Flying Object" (UFO, Space Ship, or Alien Craft, to me and you) are in the main, harmless cranks who probably deserve to be abducted by Aliens one day. But sheltering in amongst this harmless group is none other than Searchlight asset, Tim Hepple.

Hepple, or Tim Mathews as he now likes to be known, recently appeared on a Channel 4 television programme about "Conspiracy theories," something little Timmy should know all about.

Timmy has also been passing himself off in UFO/Secret State conspiracy circles as, "An expert in intelligence gathering technology."

TARGET has been able to confirm that several of his former political colleagues would dearly love to meet Tim again to discuss "old times." So before he gets "beamed up" perhaps Tim Hepple/Mathews would like to contact us.

HARRASSED HOUSEWIFE

Another "old face" resurfaced recently during a World In Action programme about a group called C.18 that featured a woman named, Gill Emerson, who whined about alleged political harassment by the group. Could this be the same Gill Emerson who as the Commissar of Kent AFA, led a vicious campaign of harassment and intimidation against a man and his young family, just because she disagreed with his politics?

And could this be the same "harassed housewife" that was charged by Kent police with possessing a can of "CS" gas as an offensive weapon?

ANWAR WANTED

Aemer Anwar, the ANL thug who desecrated a historical memorial stone in Scotland, and then went into hiding for fear of being sued for damages, has recently resurfaced in Glasgow. At the time of the desecration Anwar was a student and the Scottish ANL organiser. Now he has grown up and is working as a race relations officer for the MSF trade union.

The reason for Anwar resurfacing was to assist Labour candidate, and fellow Asian, Mohammed Sarwar, contest the Glasgow Govan constituency. It is worthwhile noting that whilst Sarwar was successful in winning the seat he is now suspended from parliament pending a police investigation into claims of alleged corruption.

Mr. Colin Jordan, editor of, Gothic Ripples, magazine has offered an unspecified reward for information on the current home address of Anwar.

It is believed that Mr. Jordan intends taking out a private prosecution against the thug for criminal damage.

If you have information about Anwar's home or workplace address please contact TARGET or Mr. Jordan at ... Gothic Ripples. Thorgarth, Greenhow Hill, Harrogate. HG3 5JQ.

INFORMATION WANTED

Liverpool colleagues are asking for any information about a man called, Damien who is believed to be close to certain AFA activists in the city. Please send any information direct to TARGET.

As always, all sources will remain confidential.

HELP FIGHT BACK

Litigation against Searchlight is becoming an ever popular trend. People who feel they have a good case of defamation (libel) should also take action against Searchlight distributors. These have in the past proved to be a weak link and actions against them should be encouraged. Several have paid damages and as a result, they now refuse to stock Searchlight.

To assist future litigants would all readers please inform TARGET if Searchlight is being sold in your area. The full address of the sale outlet should be sent directly to us.

Please assist us in this important task.
